

Scotiabank - Giller Prize Award

Location Toronto, Ontario
Designer/Architect Spencer, Francey, Peters
Duration Sept 2010 - Nov 2010

Scope - Soheil Mosun Limited was commissioned to manufacture the redesigned Scotiabank Giller Prize Awards, Canada's annual premier literary prize for fiction.

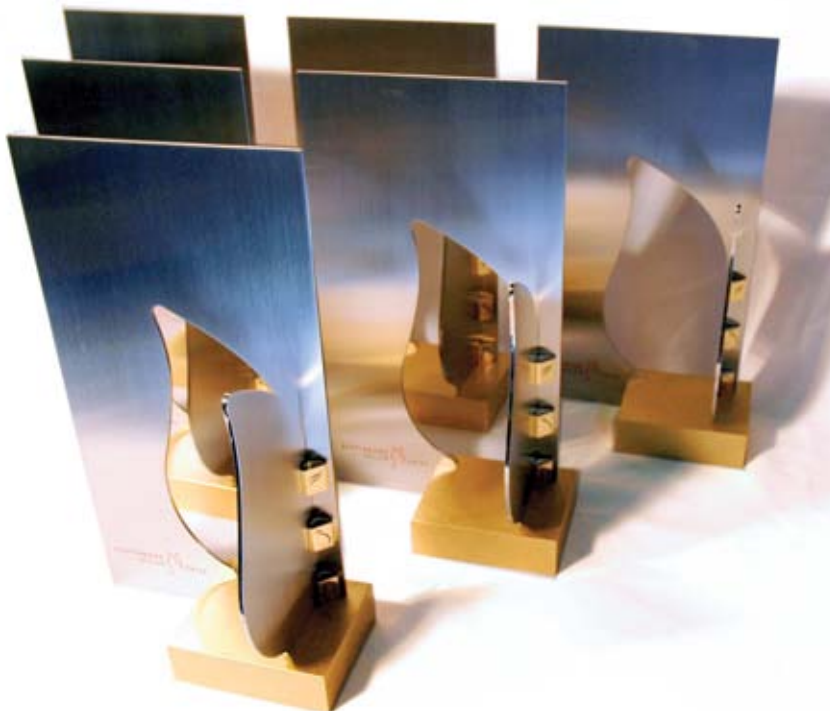

Highlights - The Giller prize has been redesigned and now has a lighter and smaller base and an extension to the steel flange. It is waterjet cut brushed and mirror polished stainless steel plate, etched with a repetitive mosaicic pattern and affixed with decorative polished bronze rosettes, all mounted on a brushed bronze base.

The newly redesigned base and extended flange

Detail of the rosettes

The newly redesigned Giller Prize Award

The reverse side of the award